Resolution to Support Recruiting and Organizing in the Constituent Locals of the NCFLL

Whereas the National Council of Field Labor Locals and the American Federation of Government is dedicated to strengthening our Union through recruiting and organizing, and;

Whereas the bargaining unit in the U.S. Department of Labor is growing at a rate not experienced in many years, and;

Whereas the NCFLL wishes to support the recruiting and organizing efforts of its constituent Locals;

Therefore be it resolved that the NCFLL will reimburse any constituent Local in the amount of $25.00 for each new member recruited in that Local. In order to receive this reimbursement, a participating constituent Local must commit to spending the proceeds of the reimbursement in additional recruiting efforts. Locals who participate in this program will make an oral report if they attend the annual Presidents Meeting that will include information on:

- Numbers of new members recruited,
- Special successes and victories in recruiting. and
- Best practices and techniques in recruiting.
